Whose Say-so Is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

Amongst these writers we find such medical lights as Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennet Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hale, of the same city; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. Grover Coe, of New York; Dr. Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College, of Pa., and scores of others equally eminent.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the worst cases of female weakness, prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion and corrects irregularities, cures painful periods, dries up disagreeable and weakening drains, sometimes known as pelvic catarrh and a multitude of other diseases peculiar to women. Bear in mind, it is not a patent nor even a secret medicine, but the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated physician, of large experience in the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, who frankly and confidingly takes his patients into his full confidence by telling them just what his "Prescription" is composed of. Of no other medicine put up for woman's special maladies and sold through druggists, can it be said that the maker is not afraid to deal thus frankly, openly and honorably, by letting every patient using the same know exactly what she is taking.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

How to preserve health and beauty is told in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is free. For a paper-covered copy send Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only; in cloth binding 31 stamps.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Anarchists Arrested.

Alexander Berkman, who last summer was released from New York state's prison after having served 14 years for an attack on Henry C. Frick, following the Homestead (Pa.) riots of 1892; Emma Goldman and two others, were arrested in New York yesterday by detectives, who broke up an anarchist meeting on the East Side. Emma Goldman made the speech which moved the police to action, while Berkman exhorted the auoience to disobey the command to disperse.

The other prisoners are John R. Coryell, who presided at the meeting, and Israel L. Schwartz, a youth of 16 years, who refused to leave the hall when it was cleared.

Emma Goldman is specifically charged with a violation of that section of the penal code which makes it a felony to give utterance from a public platform to incendiary speeches. Berkman and Coryell are held as accessories. They were locked up, and will be arranged today.

Some 600 persons attended the meeting, which, the chairman explanied had been called for the purpose of forming a club. Emma Goldman was introduced as the first speaker, but had not proceeded far when she was interrupted by the police, according to whom she said, among other things, in English:

"It is ridiculous to think that society cannot get along without government. We will say to the government: 'Give us what belongs to us in peace, and if you don't give it to us in peace, we will take it by force.' As long as I live and am able to explain myself, I will be opposed to government; and as I live and as my brain dictates, will use force against the government."

As the detectives moved toward the stage there was a stampede for the exits, which Berkman tried to stop, counseling the audience, it is alleged, to refuse to obey the police order to disperse.

Asked at police headquarters to define "anarchy," as he understood the term, Berkman said:

"I believe, as an anarchist, in government without force. The foundation of the present and all government is force. I believe society is perfectly capable of governing itself."

With the finding of the bomb thrower's valise in the obscure hotel, where he registered in Philadelphia, and the examination of the contents of the satchel, the police have radically changed their theories accounting for the explosion in the Fourth Street National Bank in that city Saturday morning that resulted in the death of the assassin himself, and the bank cashier, and in the injury of twenty others. The man who threw the bomb or dropped it proves to be Rollo Steele, who lived for years Garner, Iowa, and afterward in Chicago. But the matter of sensational importance is the discovery that in his valise he carried electric and slow fuses, of the sort often used by burglars.

It is now known that Steele and most likely his "pal," went to Philadelphia directly from Lynchburg, Va., on Thursday. It is the supposition that they went to Philadelphia to raise money and to get it out of the banks by threats to blow them up with a bomb. The threat to cast the bomb was Steele's part of it, and the standing guard outside to get away with the money was the "pal's."

The police of Lynchburg are reported to have discovered a nest of anarchists in that city, but no details will be given out until actual arrests have been made. Although the officers have not connected Steele, the man who wrecked the Philadelphia bank Saturday, with the anarchists in Lynchburg, it is interesting to note that Steele had just left there Thursday carrying with him explosives of various kinds, including, it is believed, the bomb which he used with deadly effect. Steele was a native of Garner, Iowa.

Devoured by Wolves.

With the appearance of snow in Roumania wolves, those grim terrors of unknown western Europe, every year in hard weather claim their victims. Their first victims in the present year were a parish priest and his man servant, who went a few days ago on a sledge from the village of Ludesti to Tergovesti. For days the snow had laid thick on the ground. On their return journey they were overtaken by the dusk in a forest near Ludesti by a pack of wolves, who attacked them.

The terrified horses overturned the sledge and broke the traces, leaving the men and sledge behind, and not stopping till they reached the first village on the outskirts of the forest. A searching party followed the tracks of the horses, and at last found pawmarks in the snow, splashes of blood and tatters of what had once been clothing, which told with horrible vividness what had happened.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a large tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

Serious Conditions in the Northwest

Oliver E. Conner, geologist, of Cincinnati, has just returned to Cincinnati from an extensive trip to British Columbia, Montana and North Dakota, and reports the following conditions in the northwest country:

"Coal, $50 per ton.

"Weather 20 to 30 degrees below zero.

"Snow in railway cuts, 5 to 10 feet deep.

"Trains are from 24 to 36 hours late.

"Zero weather has been continuous for the past two weeks.

"Wood is of little service as fuel in minus zero weather. However, outbuildings, fences, barrels, old chairs, etc., are being consumed until the situation is relieved.

"The root of the trouble is lack of engines to haul freight.

"Grain elevators are choked with grain.

"Thousands upon thousands of bushels of wheat are piled loose upon the ground.

"Farmers cannot sell grain because elevators are full.

"Famine and freezing to death faces many persons in the northwest unless coal is brought in and grain is taken out.

Largest Sidewheel Steamboat,

The largest sidewheel steamer in the world, built for the Detroit and Cleveland Navigation Company, of Detroit, Mich., was launched Saturday by the Detroit Shipbuilding Company, and christened the City of Cleveland by Mrs. E. A. Schantz, of Detroit. The City of Cleveland is 444 feet long 93 feet 6 inches over the guards in breadth and 22 feet deep. She will have a capacity of something over 5,000 day passengers and sleeping accomodations for 1,500 in addition to the crew of 166 persons. The three cylinder compound engines will develop a speed of between 23 and 25 miles an hour, and are the most powerful ever installed in a lake boat.

The new steamer will have an electric passenger elevator from the lobby to the upper decks, be equipped with a wireless telegraph outfit, will have a telephone in each stateroom, which will be connected with the shore lines when the steamer is in port, and each stateroom will have running water. The new boat is expected to go in commission on the route between Detroit and Cleveland, June 15.

The launch of the big steamer was successful in every way. The present City of Cleveland of the same line will be rechristened the City of St. Ignace.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JAN. 7, 1907

THE ACTION of Governor Swanson in commuting the sentence of Howard Banks, colored, to have been hanged next Friday, was not a surprise to many people in this city. Some, however, did not understand how he could see his way clear to set aside the verdict of twelve men who had consciencously carried out the law provided in such cases. So far as the letter of the law is concerned, there was no way to evade its penalty. But it was up to the Governor to exercise his vested prerogative, and in his wisdom he has acted. His course will be affirmed by many people in this city whose disinclination to the infliction of capital punishment, when it can be avoided, is outspoken. But this must not in way be taken as a reflection upon the State's Attorney nor the gentlemen composing the trial jury, whose judicial labors are justly appreciated. There are certain facts, however, in connection with the Banks case, while legally having no bearing upon it, which have doubtless been duly weighed by Governor Swanson, and while the extreme penalty of the law will not be exacted, it is believed life-long imprisonment will be a sufficient deterrent to others who, while laboring under a jealous mania and suffering from the effects of cocaine and liquor, are tempted to kill rivals. Besides all this, the fate of Elzey may cause others who are following in the same broad road to destruction to halt. It would serve no purpose to point ont where this last murder was committed nor the circumstances in connection with it. The atmosphere produced by a mingling of men and women of bankrupt character, exhilarated by liquor and music, is calculated to bring about disorder and even murder. The fate of Elzey and the living death of Banks should be sufficient warning to those who persist in living contrary to the laws of God and man.

THE third class at the Virginia Military Institute is under arrest for having celebrated by a pyrotechnic display from the roof of the academic building Saturday night. Although such conduct is a violation of the regulations, the cadets for half an hour treated Lexington to a brilliant display of fireworks. The third class fell out of ranks at supper roll, and while their companions were at supper the culprits ascended to the roof of the Smith Memorial Hall, from which vantage they set off nearly a hundred dollars' worth of fireworks, which they had surreptitiously smuggled into barracks. It is said that eighty-five men were in the escapade—the third class, with the exception of five. Colonel Mills, the commandant, and other officers, were unwilling spectators to the escapade, but the jollification went on notwithstanding orders for the boys to desist. The long roll was sounded, and even to this the cadets failed to respond, of itself constituting rebellion. When the culprits came down every man was put under arrest. It will be recalled that the first class celebrated in a similar manner on New Year's of 1899, and for the offense the entire class was dismissed. This refractory class should be treated in a similar manner. The Institute is a military school where young men are taught military discipline. They know the rules and when they deliberately break them they should be dismissed—every one of them.

JUDGE DUNCAN, in the Circuit Court for Baltimore county, Saturday filed an opinion in the case of John Walters against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, holding that the so called "cut-off" law passed by the last legislature is a valid act as against that company, and that the company has no right to disregard to law and proceed with the construction of the proposed freight line around Baltimore city. The opinion is on broad lines and goes into the merits of the question, taking the ground that when the legislature of 1826 passed the charter of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad the law makers had in mind the development of Baltimore, and not the construction of any transportation line which might divert freight from that port. This decision of Judge Duncan should be an incentive to the people of Alexandria to compel the railroads to come into the city as they did before the "cut off" lines to build outside the city "cut off" line was built outside the city limits. The people of Alexandria are now burdened with a debt contracted in aiding the building of some of these very railroads which now pass them by. It is believed that the charters of some of these roads bind them to have their stations within the city, but this for over a year they have ignored. They all sell tickets to Alexandria, but land their passengers in another county, and half a mile from this city.

IN MANY Protestant churches throughout the world the week beginning today will be observed as the annual week of prayer. Although this custom does not hold as generally as in former years, the Alexandria churches will largely follow it, and arrangements have been made to hold meetings every day. The leading spirit in this movement is the World's Evangelical Alliance.

DURING the past year there were constructed in this country more than a hundred locomotives every week, and about a thousand freight cars every working day. If the railroads have not done all they should have done to provide themselves with the means of handling their traffic, it cannot be denied that they made very considerable efforts.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)
Washington, Jan. 7.

Following is Senator Lodge's amendment of Senator Foraker's resolution which will be the text of the big debate in the Senate this week in regard to the President's authority to discharge the colored troops: "Resolved, That the committee on military affairs be, and hereby is, authorized to take such further testimony as may be necessary to establish the facts connected with the discharge (by the President of the United States in the exercise of his constitutional and legal authority as commander-in-chief) of members of Companies B, C and D, Twenty-fifth United States Infantry, and that it be, and hereby is, authorized to send for persons and papers, and administer oaths, and report thereon, by bill or otherwise."

Attorneys for Berea College, Kentucky, today docketed in the U. S. Supreme Court an appeal of that institution from the judgment of the lower courts, fining it $2,000 for educating whites and blacks together, in alleged violation of a Kentucky statute. The appeal was based on the ground that the statute is unconstitutional.

When Engineer Hildebrand and Fireman McClellan of the fatal equipment train were called to the stand at the coroner's inquest this mording, Hildebrand said his train was under full control going down into Terra Cotta, although running twenty-five miles an hour. He knew of nothing that would limit the speed of an extra. Fireman McClellan professed ignorance as to this. McClellan further alleges that he was unable to procure a copy of the current time schedule, though required as fireman to have one in his possession, and to become familiar with it. Testimony was given which would suggest that the speed of engine 2120 during the entire trip was due largely to a desire to reach Washington soon after 6:30 p. m., in order to follow the 6:30 train out over the Baltimore branch as a second section. Hildebrand is said to have remarked at Washington Junction on the folly of running the slow local passenger ahead of a fast through extra. Signal Expert Adams, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, will take the stand this afternoon with a detailed explanation of the block system.

Postmaster General Cortelyou today announced his retirement as chairman of the national republican committee. Mr. Harry S. New of Indianapolis, vice chairman, will become acting chairman of the committee.

The recent death of Robert Vance Freeman, Department of Agriculture clerk and members of Dr. Wiley's "poison squad" was brought to the attention of the House today by Representative Hay, who commented upon the charge that poisoned diet of Freeman caused his death and calls upon the Secretary of Agriculture to acquint the House with his authority of law for conducting the experiments.

In an opinion announced by Justice McKenna today, the Supreme Court of the United States decided that the duty on leaf tobacco brought into the United States must be levied on the weight at the time of entry and not at the time of withdrawal from the warehouses. This opinion was rendered in the case of the United States vs. G. Falk and Brother. The judgment of the lower court was reversed.

The United States Supreme Court today decided the famous "Colorado election cases" declining to assume jurisdiction in the matter. The decision of the Supreme Court of Colorado therefore stands. The decision was in favor of the republicans, giving them the title to the city officers of Denver in question. The Suprema Court of the United States held no Federal question was involved, as argued by the attorneys for the democrats.

There was an incipient outbreak of the old Chinese boycott against American goods last week. It occurred at Canton where the boycott reached its most aggravated form a year ago. The renewed movement had been promptly suppressed by the authorities, a proclamation having been issued threatening severe punishment to all who posted boycott advertisements or otherwise joined in the anti-American propaganda.

Mr. Rixey, who has been at Liberty, N. Y., for the past month or so, is back in Washington, though he has not attended the sessions of the House. He is here to consult his brother, Surgeon-General Rixey, of the navy, having been told that his throat, with which he has been suffering for some time, needs medical attention rather than the cold climate in which he has been living. Mr. Rixey is looking well and, through his secretary, Mr. J. G. Hiden, is constantly looking after the interests in the House of his constituents in the Eighth Virginia district.

A majority of the Senate committee on pensions today made a favorable report on the bill increasing the pensions of army nurses to $20 per month, and after seventy years of age to $25 per month. It is calculated that if the bill becomes a law it will involve an additional annual appropriation of $60,000. There will be a minority report signed by several members of the committee, probably including Chairman McCumber, urging that the soldiers who did the fighting should be first provided for in a general service bill before action is taken in behalf of the nurses.

Secretary of War Taft was today heard by the home committee on insular affairs on the proposition to pay the Roman Catholic Church for damages incurred by the Philippine Church property through occupation by United States troops. The church claims $9,000,000, damages while an army board has set the damages at $363,000. Secretary Taft said that the debt should be paid. He delivered a glowing tribute to the church as a civilizer in the islands.

A dispatch to the New York Press says that Secretary Taft will succeed Chief Justice Fuller on the Supreme Court bench. It is not stated, however, when Justice Fuller will resign.

The "silver trust" won a victory in the U. S. Supreme Court today by an opinion which held that it was not required to pay the annual State corporation license tax. The State of Colorado had brought suit to have the trust's franchise, that of the American Smelting and Refining Company, forfeited until the tax was paid. The Supreme Court held that the company was exempted from paying this tax and therefore reversed the decision of the lower court against the company.

The writ of error of the indicted bank officials of the insolvent Canton (Ohio) State Bank, claiming the "free banking law" of Ohio under which they were indicted is unconstitutional, was today dismissed by the U. S. Supreme Court. The officials must now stand trial for the alleged wrecking of the bank.

The House committee on merchant marine and fisheries today postponed the vote on the ship subsidy bill until January 15. This action follows out the agreement run had last week by the warring republican factions of the committee when President Roosevelt's promised message endorsing the subsidy failed to materialize. A compromise on the Senate bill, now seems hardly possible.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Lucy Carle, daughter of the late George Carle, of Lincoln, to E. A. Seaton, a merchant of Purcellville, Loudoun county. The ceremony took place on Wednesday afternoon at the bride's home at Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Seaton will reside at Purcellville.

Percy Martin, of Atlanta, Ga., was arrested at Huntington, W. Va., Saturday, charged with being one of the bandits who held up a Seaboard Air Line train eighty miles south of Richmond New Year's Eve. Martin confessed his guilt and delivered to the officer a $500 diamond ring which had been taken from one of the passengers, and he told where most of the money can be found. Martin says that he and his pal, Charles Powley, now in jail in Mecklenburg, planned the robbery while in Washington. After committing the robbery and shooting the conductor they stopped the train, and, after getting off they walked all the way to Norfolk, through thickets and woodlands a part of the way.

Denies Mosby Charges.

Ex-Senator Charles Dietrich at Hastings, Neb., Saturday denounced Colonel John S. Mosby, the famous Confederate raider, and calls on Col. Mosby to produce the proofs that the Senator assisted the great cattle owners of the West to fence the government range while he was a member of the United States Senate. Mr. Dietrich's statement is in answer to an interview with Col. Mosby printed in Washington Thursday. It is in part:

"If Colonel Mosby stated that I ever aided or encouraged any individual firm or corporation to acquire title illegally or inclose any part of the public domain, he is an infamous liar. If it is true that Colonel Mosby stated that any person, firm or corporation that has illegally inclosed public lands, or any of the cattle men who have been indicted ever owed any money to the bank of which I was president, or ever were in any way obligated to the bank or to myself, personally, directly or indirectly, he stated that which is absolutely false.

Now, having made a frank denial as to the charges against myself by Colonel Mosby, I shall expect Colonel Mosby, if he be a brave and honorable man, to give to the public substantial proof of his charges concerning myself or publicly apologize for having made them. I am sorry that I have not a record to strike terror to my enemies, such as Col. Mosby refers to in his statements of himself, but, nevertheless, I again brand his charges as infamous lies, except so far as I have explained.

[Mr. Dietrich is as brash as is President Roosevelt in calling people "liars" but it is dollars to buttons that what Col Mosby said about him is true. At any rate Mr. Dietrich's connection with the land grabbers lost him his seat in the Senate. It would be well to make President Roosevelt a witness in the case as he might tell why he recalled Col. Mosby from Nebraska and sent him to Alabama.]

"I have not read the interview with Dietrich, in which it is alleged he said I was an infamous liar," said Colonel Mosby last night. "I do not care to make any statement until I have read the interview."

It is believed he could disclose facts which came under his observation while acting for the government in the fight against land grabbers in Nebraska several years ago which would be very embarrassing to Senator Dietrich.

The Gazette.

The Alexandria Gazette has entered upon the 108th year of its existence, and as a clean and newsy sheet has no superior in the State. As a daily it gives all the news in a form so condensed as to make it easy to find, and while it is unpretentious in the way of flashing headlines and superfluous reading, if it has happened you will find it in the Gazette. No more welcome visitor comes to our office, and we extend our best wishes for many years of prosperity.—[Leesburg Mirror.

On January 1st the Alexandria Gazette closed its 107th year. For generations past it has been a familiar object in the homes of the people of Northern Virginia. It is read by the people of the present generation; it was read by their fathers, grandfathers and great-grandfathers. It is mentioned in the record of this country of more than a century ago. It has always been a good newspaper, and at no time has it more fully displayed the qualities of a first class journal than at present. We wish it continued success.—[Fairfax Herald.

Today's Telegraphic News

President Cassatt's Will.

Norristown, Pa., Jan. 7.—By the will of Alexander J. Cassatt, late president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which was filed with Register of Wills Caine today, and which disposes of an estate valued at over $10,000,000, everything goes to his wife and three children, not a cent to charity. The household goods, "Cheswold" his country estate, in Montgomery county, his city residence at 202 Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia, and his summer home, "Four Aces," at Bar Harbor, goes to his wife for life. The sum of $100,000 per annum is to be paid out of the income of the estate during the life time of the widow for repairs and maintenance of each of the properties. To each of his sons-in-law, James H. Hutchinson, M. D., and A. Plunkett Stewart, $50,000. By a codicil dated May 8, 1906, the Stewart share is increased to $100,000. To R. Penn Smith, who had charge of his stock farm and horses $2,000 is given. The rest of the estate is to be held in trust by the Fidelity Trust Company, the income to be distributed as follows: Forty per cent to the wife and twenty per cent each to three children, Edward, Robert and Eliza, wife of William Plunkett Stewart. His son, Robert, by a codicil, is given $100,000 with which to go into business. The will is dated November 21, 1905. The wife, three children and the Fidelity Trust Company are named as executors.

Alleged Grafting.

New York, Jan. 7.—James McCrea, the new president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was elected to this position for the purpose of putting an end to the "grafting" reported to have been practiced in the management of the road for years. This is the declaration made to day by the World.

Practically a page is devoted to an expose of the alleged "grafting" on the part of Pennsylvania railroad officials and employes. The evil, the World says, President McCrea is to combat. His task is described as monumental.

Favoritism, in the awarding of contracts or supplies to companies in which railroad men are directly or indirectly interested is charged as the method by which the "grafting" has been conducted.

It is pointed out that several officers of the road, although drawing salaries none too large, have been able to retire independently rich.

This alleged "grafting" was practiced on the lines east of Pittsburg to the greatest extent. West of Pittsburg Mr. McCrea was in control, and contractors had a fair chance at obtaining contracts.

Enormous "grafting," it is charged, has been carried on in the company's printing and paper contracts.

In the purchase of other supplies it is charged there has been "grafting."

Investigating Harriman Lines.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—The financial fabric upon which the Harriman lines were combined having been laid bare, the Interstate Commerce Commission proposes to discover now if this same combination has stifled competition. Hearings for that purpose will be held in Chicago with all the members of the commission present save Francis M. Cockrell, who is ill. The principal witnesses will be Julius Kruttschnitt, director of traffic of all the Harriman lines.

The Texas Cattle Raisers' Association and the representatives of the railroads which oppose rates the association claims to receive, will be given a hearing today.

On Wednesday there will be a short hearing which the railroad men objecting to the rules for filing tariff schedules outlined by the commission have been invited to discuss with Commissioner Clark.

Corbett and Murphy.

New York, Jan. 7.—If all the highly-paid backers are not greatly wrong, young Corbett will have easy going with Tommy Murphy when the two little fighters meet in Philadelphia Wednesday night. Corbett has been hard at work for fifteen weeks at Stratford, Conn., and he has lost the wrinkles and sallowness that put him in the derelict class when he was drifting around Broadway as late and as early as the white lights burned. Tommy Murphy and his manager, Johnny Oliver, however, are confident and say they expect a victory. Oliver says Murphy is in better condition than ever before and ready to put out his bigger, stronger, and harder hitting opponent.

Failure of Cotton Importing Company.

Oporto, Portugal, Jan. 7.—The Moller Company, largest importers of raw cotton and wool in Portugal, has failed and several of its officers are now fugitives from justice on account of circumstances connected with the failure. A number of smaller houses have been compelled to close as a consequence of the Moller smash. Liabilities of the Moller Company will reach $700,000 and there are no available assets so far as can be learned. Warrants have been issued for several of the fugitive officers.

The Advance of Surgery.

Berlin, Jan. 7—Dr. Posner, professor of surgery at Berlin University, writing in the Gartenlaube today, says that surgery is advancing so rapidly that he looks forward to the time when it will be possible to replace a severed head upon the shoulders provided the operation is performed quickly enough. The learned professor admits that such an operation would require considerable celerity as well as dexterity. He speaks in a matter-of-fact way of the time when arms and legs will be artifically attached.

Terry McGovern's Condition.

Stamford, Conn., Jan. 7.—"There is no hope for Terry McGovern. He is dead mentally now and it will not be long before he is dead physically," said Dr. Givens, of the Givens Sanitarium today. The little fighter's expenses at the sanitarium are $140 a month, and are being paid by Sam Harris, his former manager. Harris is one of the managers of the athletic contest to be given for McGovern's benefit at Madison Square Garden January 31.

Sentence Commuted.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Jan. 7.—Governor Swanson this afternoon commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence of Howard Banks, colored, who was to hang for murder. Papers strongly recommending this were read by the Governor from Alexandria officials.

Advised to Plead Insanity.

New York, Jan. 7.—A final attempt will be made within a few days to induce Harry Thaw to accept an insanity plea as his defense for the killing of Architect Stanford White. Two weeks from today the young Pittsburger will be brought to trial and Mrs. Thaw, mother of the defendant, has been advised by United States Senator P. C. Knox, of Pennsylvania, and Justice McKenna, of the Supreme Court, that the insanity plea should be entered for her son.

Mrs. Thaw was advised by friends, according to a Pittsburg dispatch, to confer with Senator Knox, and Justice McKenna, who are old friends of the Thaw family. Without hesitation both advised her that it would be best for her son to plead insanity.

Harry Thaw is apparently determined to seek vindication on the "unwritten law," and it will require great pressure to secure his consent to the plea of insanity.

A bitter attack on the public press for printing alleged false statements harmful to his client was made by John B. Gleason, of counsel for Harry K. Thaw, today, in resisting a motion by the District Attorney to have a special panel of jurors drawn to try Thaw on January 21.

"My special ground for opposing this motion," said Mr. Gleason, "is that the many false and injurious statements published attributed to the defendant and members of this family in the public press since January 1, is that it is doubtful whether a fair and impartial jury could be obtained under the statute. False statements have been printed in certain newspapers as if the writers were determined to prevent the defendant from securing a trial such as any poor man would be entitled to."

Suit to Oust McClellan.

New York, Jan. 7.—Attorney Wm. S. Jackson today brought suit in the New York Supreme Court to oust George B. McClellan from the office of Mayor of New York on the ground that William R. Hearst was legally elected to the office. Mayor McClellan was served with a notice of the suit at his office. The suit of Attorney General Jackson caused much surprise in political circles.

The suit is brought in the name of the State of New York. In the Attorney General's complaint, he charges that Hearst was rightfully elected and says that in each and every election district in the city at the time of the election ballots were lawfully marked and cast for Hearst and that the inspectors counted them for McClellan.

The Attorney General further charges that in each election district men were permitted to vote for McClellan who had not registered, and that there were numerous instances where men voted twice. The complaint further charges that many illegal and void ballots, which should have been thrown out, were cast for McClellan.

Dynamited Bank Reopened.

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—With both its entrances guarded by a force of uniformed employes and a squad of 18 city policemen under Sergeant Austin, the Fourth Street National Bank, of which Cashier William Z. McLear was killed and a score of clerks and employes injured by a bomb thrown by Rolla Steel a western anarchist, shortly before closing time on Saturday, reopened for business this morning. The busy clerks pored over the books, adjusting the business of the week just closed, interrupted by the roar which snuffed out two lives and threw the building into a furore of excitement. Many of them arrived this morning with bandaged heads and fingers, the result of flying glass or contusions from the force with which they were hurled about when the bomb exploded.

Price of Copper Forced up.

Boston, Jan. 7.—Apparently undismayed by the violent slump of Trinity copper on Saturday, Thomas W. Lawson and his followers returned to the battle today and are now steadily forcing up the price of their favorite stock. While there was no repetition of Saturday wild action, trading in Trinity and all coppers was unusually heavy and the Lawson crowd succeeded in working the former up to 37 before 11 o'clock from an opening of 35. Lawson declared that those of his followers who heeded his advice bought the stock outright and refused to give their brokers "stop orders" will not suffer. Saturday drop, he says, was caused by the large quanity of stop orders dumped upon the market the minute the stock touched 35.

The United States and Japan.

Tokio, Jan. 7.—There is no excitement in Japan over the San Francisco question, and the Tokio press ridicules the efforts of the Russian press to bring about strained relations between the United States and Japan. The Japanese do not regard the San Francisco question as of sufficient moment to disturb the long friendship between the two nations.

Railroad Wreck.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 7—A telephone message from Wolcott, Wayne county, says that in a freight wreck on the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railroad early today between Wolcott and Red Creek, three men were killed and several others seriously injured. One of the injured will die.

Another Duel.

Paris, Jan. 7.—Another duel, the third within a week, was fought here today. The combatants were M. Leecure, of the French consular service and Herbert Sevaco, a popular author. Swords were used, and Leecure was seriously wounded.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 7.

SENATE.

Mr. Carter introduced a resolution providing for the appointment of a joint congressional committee to investigate the cause of collisions, wrecks and accidents of all kinds on railways engaged in Interstate Commerce. It was referred to the committee on contingent expenditures.

Senator Gearin, of Oregon, today discussed the questions of the right of the Japanese children to education in white schools and of the necessity for the restriction of immigration of Japanese coolies. His speech was delivered with much emphasis and was regarded as a strong presentation of the feeling of the Pacific coast on these subjects.

The Senator took strong issue with the President because of the tone of his message in its references to the Japanese and uttered a vigorous warning to labor against the threatened invasion of cheap labor.

Mr. Tillman, who has been absent for several weeks on a lecturing tour, took a hand in the Senate today in the lively skirmishing in progress over the negro troops case. Before Mr. Lodge could get the floor in defense of the President's course in dismissing negro troops for rioting in Texas, the South Carolinian offered a resolution calling upon the War Department for all records relating to the rioting of soldiers at Athens, O., some years ago.

Mr. Tillman characterized the affair as "a riot and murder."

"The War Depaitment refers to it as a disturbance," interrupted Mr. Foraker.

Mr. Foraker, in explaining that he had already received from the War Department the records desired, said Mr. Tillman was right in his belief that the department had sent the judge advocate general to Athens to defend the soldiers under indictment. The South Carolinian withdrew his resolutions after being assured that he would have all the records he wished, so that later he may assail the administration on the difference in its policy relating to riots between white and by black troops.

Mr. Foraker tried unsuccessfully to secure a unanimous consent to [illegible] resolution of investigation before the Senate each day until disposed of. Mr. Heyburn objected. Mr. Culberson offered an amendment, giving a sub-committee authority to visit Brownsville, Tex., which Mr. Foraker said he would not oppose.

Good naturedly the Senate then temporarily put aside the investigation resolution, to enable Mr. Gearin of Oregon, an opportunity to deliver his speech on the San Francisco school question.

At the conclusion of this Mr. Lodge took the floor to defend the President.

HOUSE.

When the House met today Chairman Hull, of the committee on military affairs, submitted the army budget for the coming fiscal year carrying an appropriation of $73,000,000; an increase of $3,000,000, over the current appropriation. The bill recommends that the office of Lieutenant General, now held by General MacArthur, be abolished when General MacArthur retires in 1909. The bill carries half a million dollars to meet the extra expenses of the Cuban army of pacification. The bill will be considered by the House tomorrow.

The House today agreed to give to the bill codifying the criminal laws of the United States such statute as to permit it to be considered at evening sessions.

The Crumpacker bill, providing a judicial review of orders excluding use of the United States mails was then debated.

New York Stock Market

New York, Jan. 7—The strength in the stock market developed shortly after the beginning of the New Year, was more firmly established during the trading this morning. Prices of nearly everything made gains. There is a good deal of significant talk in coal road circles about radical changes arranged for in the auditing and operating departments of the various companies. There was urgent buying of Steel common, part of the demand coming from Pittsburg on an advance of 40 3-4 to 50 3-8.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against Opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

...the negro murderer under sen... to hang in this city Friday next, has had his death sentence commuted by Gov. Swanson to imprisonment for life. This had been generally anticipated and the report caused little or no surprise. There has been no crying demand for the hanging of Banks, though his crime was murder in the first degree, and a large majority of the citizens think that the ends of justice will be subserved by a life sentence. Several days ago State Senator Lewis H. Machen and R. C. L. Moncure, counsel for the man, presented a petition to the governor asking that the sentence be commuted. Gov. Swanson, as heretofore stated, at once took up the case with the judge, the attorney for the commonwealth, and the City Sergeant. Judge Barley recommended that the man be given a life sentence as did the City Sergeant, but Commonwealth's Attorney Brent would make no such recommendation, holding that the verdict of the jury was a just and proper one. All the members of the jury who tried Banks, except Dr Carroll May, signed a petition to the Governor for the commutation of the sentence to imprisonment for life. Banks was convicted early in the morning of Sunday, October 14th, of the murder of Thomas Elzey, colored, whom he shot four times in the back after a quarrel in a saloon on the night of October 4, and was to have been hanged next Friday morning. The fact that Banks surrendered himself at police headquarters after having been at large twelve hours and that he had made an exemplary prisoner, doubtless influenced the governor in his decision. Elzey, it will be remembered, some years ago shot and killed a colored man named Pinkney. For this he was tried and acquitted.

When Banks was informed yesterday of the Governor's intention in his case he manifested evidence of great relief and expressed his horror of being hanged. He said his supposed fate had recently been uppermost in his mind and he had anticipated it with a natural horror.

The order committing Banks to the penitentiary for life will in all probability be entered today.

It was understood last week that Governor Swanson had determined to commute Banks's sentence, but he did not do so until this afternoon; hence the statements published yesterday and today that he had acted in the matter were premature. Senator Machen, however, received a dispatch from Governor Swanson announcing that the sentence had been commuted.

All the rest of her property is left to her three children share and share alike.

The Wright Case.

Mr. James E. Clements, of Alexandria county, attorney for John Wright, colored, who was sentenced to be hanged in Alexandria county December 14 last, but who was granted a stay of execution, has prepared his brief in the case and will tomorrow appear before the Court of Appeals at Richmond to argue a motion for a new trial. Mr. Clements bases his argument for a new trial on newly discovered evidence and a claim that his client did not have a fair and impartial trial. The motion for a new trial for Wright will be opposed by the Attorney General of Virginia and by Mr. Crandall Mackey, commonwealth's attorney for Alexandria county.

Case Dropped.

It is understood that in the United States Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Judge Edmund Waddill, which convened here today, the suit of Howard C. Knode against Crandall Mackey, Commonwealth's Attorney of Alexandria county, for $10,000 for alleged unlawful arrest, will be dismissed by agreement, Attorney Lamb, of Richmond, who represents Knode, having notified Mr. Mackey sometime ago that the suit would be dropped. The suit grew out of a raid made by Mr. Mackey and several other Alexandria county officers upon an alleged gambling house at Jackson City in September, 1905.

New Schedules.

The Southern Railway inaugurated its winter schedules yesterday. The schedules have been lengthened one or two hours to the various cities in the South.

The fast mail, known as No. 97, which carried the mails at a rate of about forty-five miles an hour from Washington to New Orleans, was, at the company's suggestion, discontinued on January 5, and replaced by an exclusively mail train leaving Washington at 8 a. m. daily, making fast time, but not altogether as fast as No. 97.

Alleged Theft.

The Seizure of Church Documents.

The news that the French government intends to publish the text of some of the documents seized at the Paris nunciature was received with interest at the Vatican and in the clerical world generally, which held that such a step would constitute a further violation of diplomatic traditions. It was said, also, that if documents were detached from the whole correspondence on a certain subject they would lose their relative value, and that, in fact, as no inventory of the documents was made at the time they were seized, the Vatican may even question the genuineness of the documents published.

The Osservatore Romano yesterday publishes the following communication from the Vatican:

"It is stated that the French government intends to publish the text of some of the documents which were seized at the papal nunciature in Paris December 11. The Holy See declares that it declines any responsibility for the publication, leaving it to the persons who may think themselves injured by the publication of the documents to use the means which they judge best to protect their rights. It must be borne in mind, however, that no inventory was made at the time of the seizure of the documents by the French government."

Schoolbooks.

Chairman Richard E. Byrd, of Winchester; Senator Aubrey E. Strode, of Amherst, and Delegate E. P. Cox, of Richmond, will meet in the latter city Tuesday and resume the book inquiry. This committee, appointed by the General Assembly, is seeking to ascertain why the people of Virginia are called upon to pay more for the schoolbooks used in this State than is paid for the same books in other States. Virginia has the multiple list, but this list was repudiated when the candidates for general offices were chosen two years ago. The evidence so far shows that Virginia is being made to pay more than other States.
